May 29, 2007

Greetings from Marketplace for Kids!

Thanks to your involvement, we've just concluded another successful season of Marketplace for Kids. We want to thank you for making Marketplace for Kids such a rich, worthwhile experience for everyone involved!

This year we saw thousands of children turn out with fun, clever and ingenious inventions and business ideas. At each of the ten Marketplace for Kids Education Days, these young people learned that business can be rewarding and fun. Hundreds of classes offered a great exchange of ideas among children, educators, community leaders and parents.

You helped to make all of this happen! Thank you for your time, energy and commitment to helping our young people experience Marketplace for Kids. It takes a tremendous effort to make this program successful, and it wouldn't be possible without people like you.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Kent Conrad
