Use #30DaysofSavings to respond to 30 questions that will be posed daily from February 1 to March 2, 2019.

Your thoughts and ideas about saving money will provide inspiration, motivation, and “how-to” tips for others.

Here's What You Need to Do:

1. Follow @NDSUExtFinance and @AmericaSaves to receive the 30 daily questions in your Twitter feed from February 1 through March 2, 2019. You can also search for the daily questions using #30DaysofSavings.
2. Enter the contest by completing the registration at <https://bit.ly/2GdqYI8> with your name, e-mail address, and the link to one of your daily tweets. You may enter up to 30 times using the link to a tweet with an answer for each daily question.

Three $100 Amazon gift cards will be awarded in a drawing from among those who enter the #30DaysofSavings contest by midnight March 2, 2019. Multiple entries will increase your chance of winning a prize but only one prize will be awarded to a contestant.

3. From February 1- March 2, 2019, tweet answers to daily questions about saving money using the hashtag #30DaysofSavings. Enter the links to your tweets on the online entry form.
4. Be creative. Feel free to include a photo, graphic, or video in your tweets with answers to the 30 savings questions. Doing so will result in greater viewer engagement (e.g., likes and retweets and comments).
5. Optional: Complete the 30-Day $100 Savings Challenge from February 1 to March 2, 2019. Download a tracking form and set aside daily deposits of $1 to $5 to reach the $100 savings goal on March 2, 2019.
